Request Information
Request Description
System should be able to calculate how many barrel needed for stored olive oils.
Justification
This requirement is necessary so that he can track the number of bottles he has and determine his needs. The olive oil that are stored are put in barrels, so the system calculates the number of barrels needed.
Effect if declined (Risk if the project request is declined)
Bottle fee is an important requirement for the system as it affects the user's earnings. If this requirement is rejected the system will give false results.
Request Alternatives
The system should include the bottle expense.
